Dern-Cunningham Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Dern and Mr. William H. Cunningham will take place on Tuesday, June 10th, at five o'clock in the afternoon, at St. Paul's Church. The invitations will be issued next week, and the wedding will be the leading society event of early June. The maid of honor will be the bride's sister, Miss Dern, and the bridesmaids, Miss Kerkow of Fremont, Neb., Miss Miller, Miss McGrath and Miss McMillan. Mr. Robert J. Glendinning will be best man for Mr. Cunningham, and the ushers will be Mr. Fred Dern, Mr. George Lawrence, Mr. Chester Nason and Mr. J. T. Goodwin.

Pink and white will be the color scheme throughout the decorations.

The Holmes Musicales.

The principal society event of next week will be the musicale given on Monday evening by Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes.

The presence of Alberto Jonas, the famous Spanish pianist, will be an event of unusual interest.

Jonas is to give a concert in the theatre on Wednesday, the 21st, but his first appearance will be at the musicale on Monday.

The New Officers.

The officers of the Twelfth at Douglas are: Col. John W. Bubbs, commanding; Lieut.-Col. Harry L. Haskell, Maj. Palmer G. Wood, Capt. Charles H. Barth, Adjutant; Capt. Robert L. Hirst, Quartermaster; Capt. James P. Harbeson, Capt. Wm. F. Creary, Lieut. Dana T. Merrill, Lieut. Francis J. McConnell, Lieut. Rhees Jackson, Lieut. De Witt C. Lyles and Lieut. Sherman A. White. Capt. Waldo E. Ayer, Capt. William J. Pardee, Lieut. Moor N. Falls.

Mrs. Filer and Mrs. Smith Receive.

Mrs. Walter G. Filer and Mrs. Robert Smith will receive at the Country Club this afternoon, from four to six o'clock. They will be assisted by the Misses Sherman, Miss Read, Miss Burke and Miss McCornick. The Tavern orchestra will be in attendance and a ping pong tournament will be the special feature of the afternoon.

There are new officers at the post—and all are not married. There is also a band, for the first time in months. It begins to look like the old post 'fo' de wah', and there are lots of girls in town who "want to join the military."

Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes entertained at an elaborated dinner in honor of Senator Kearns last Sunday night.

Miss Kerkow and Mrs. George Haslam of Fremont, Neb., will arrive next week, to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Dern.

At the annual business meeting of the Ladies' Literary Club, the election of officers was as follows: Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, president; Mrs. Hal W. Brown, vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. A. J. Gorham, recording secretary; Mrs. Merrill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, treasurer; Miss Yardley, librarian; Mrs. William Igleheart, critic; Mrs. William C. Jennings, historian; Mesdames Hutchison, Moyer and Cowan, directors.

Mrs. William C. Jennings entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Denison, the newly elected president of the general Federation of Women's Clubs, and the clever Cynthia Westover Alden, newspaper woman and president of the Sunshine Society.

There must have been plenty of fun on the special Pullman cars that took the club women to and from Los Angeles. Think of those dressing rooms in the morning, with a line a car length waiting. Nice?

Mr. J. Critchlow entertained a few friends informally Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Shealey of Ogden. His other guests were L. Freed, B. Barnett, A. Copp and T. Goodwin.

The New York club women who visited Salt Lake for a day on the way home from Los Angeles were given a touch of the strenuous life.

Mrs. Thomas Jennings entertained at a porch party on Thursday in honor of her guest, Mrs. Willard Young.

Mrs. M. E. Colburn, mother of Mrs. Plummer, and R. L. Colburn is here from New York to spend the summer.

Mrs. Wm. G. Sharp will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given next Tuesday by Mrs. D. J. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCutcheon entertained at dinner at the Country Club Sunday evening.

Miss Zane has returned home after a charming winter spent in New York, Boston and Chicago.

Miss Emilie Read has returned from California and is a guest of Mrs. Walter G. Filer.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer entertained at an informal Kensington last Wednesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Porter and Miss Mamie Porter have returned from the coast.

Miss Bersbach of Chicago is a guest of Miss Porter at the Kenyon.

Mrs. Andrew Howatt and daughters entertained informally Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Mont Ferry was hostess at an elaborate luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. F. F. Eccles and Mrs. Nellie Walker start for the east on Monday.

Mrs. Rooklidge will entertain the sewing club next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker have returned from New York.
